Armored Warfare is a dynamic, free-to-play World War 2 tank combat game that allows players to step into the shoes of legendary World War 2 tanks and participate in epic battles on any map. Players can make in-game purchases to customize their tanks and their load-outs with a huge variety of parts, from visual customization items to different tactical equipment. Players can also enter Clan Leagues and participate in 1v1, 2v2, and 3v3 battles for rewards and prestige, including exclusive gear! As they play, Armored Warfare's members are contributing to the world's first global World War 2 tank combat league, The Global Arena. Defining World War 2 Combat: As one of the cornerstones of Armored Warfare, players will be immersed in the visceral and tactical World War 2 threw away. The News Eagle reports that 35-year-old William Diehl spent two days drinking in the city before being presented with the beer glass. He said he thought that he had tossed the beverage away after making one of his many trips to the beer bar. Diehl is charged with burglary and possession of burglary tools. Court documents say he stole metal from a repair shop in Wisconsin Rapids. Copyright 2012 by Channel 3000. All rights reserved.
